Prizes awarded this morning fall into one of three broad categories: Form prizes, subject and specialism prizes, and character development or leadership awards. The Form prizes are awarded for effort and attitude.

Subject prizes are awarded for academic excellence in a particular subject area. The development and leadership awards take into account the development of strengths and character of a student or recognise a level of leadership shown during the course of the year.

The Gordon Medal

The Gordon Medal is now awarded to the School Sergeant Major and Colour Sergeant every year. In addition, the Medal is awarded to the Pipe Major and Drum Major in recognition of services to the Pipes and Drums, and to each House Captain in recognition of services to marching and parades.

The Headmaster's Award

The Headmaster's Award, nominated by staff, is for students who have demonstrated excellence in one or more ways which we feel should be recognised by the School.

This could be for a student who has contributed a great deal to the School over the past year, or one who has made progress in spite of coping with difficulties/setbacks. It could be for a student who has developed personally or socially or one who is perceived to be outstanding in one or more fields.
